

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of using media consolidation to sway public opinion and voice partisan politics over the airwaves.

This is a clear violation of FCC rules of fair representation and is a prime example of the dangers involved in media consolidation.

Media must act as an accurate representation of and service to the opinions and beliefs of all Americans, not just large corporations.

Thanks for your time.